

Advancing Healthcare

Overview

Each year, the Extraordinary Women Advancing Healthcare (EWAH) Awards recognize ten outstanding individuals across the Commonwealth for their career achievements, with a focus on how they influence, innovate, and foster diversity through policy, practice and mentorship.

Individuals are nominated and selected by a panel of distinguished judges based on the following criteria:

Impact

- Demonstrates impact advancing healthcare
- Sponsors people and policies to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion in the industry
- Can showcase actions and leadership that result in measurable change and/or success
- Uses influence and organization's processes to advance healthcare

Inspiration

- Inspires and lifts others to strive to improve healthcare
- Mentors others to advance women in healthcare
- Leads in diversity and inclusion improvements within their organization and the community
- Influences others in the larger community by words and actions

Innovation

- Leads to drive changes, improvements, and/or new healthcare services
- Brings new ideas and thinking to enrich healthcare in the community
- Demonstrates a commitment to forward thinking projects and needs that will advance healthcare

ENDORISING PARTNERS

Endorsing Partners are member-based organizations spanning the healthcare community, who commit to sharing the EWAH nominations and awards with their members and networks. They are a key component of the outreach strategy to ensure that a diverse pool of nominations is received.

As an Endorsing Partner, we ask that you share the Call for Nominations announcement with your members and networks, as well as the Finalists and Events announcements, through your social media and newsletters. We will provide you with proposed language and graphics for all requested outreach.

In return, The Women's Edge lists your organization as an endorser on our website and materials, and gifts you a complimentary registration to our awards event in November 2023, currently planned to be in person.

MENTOR. PARTNER. LEAD.
